The informal meeting was called to order by Vice President, Dana Ferrell. Those attending were: Dana Ferrell, Chad Taylor, Lisa Godwin, Tom Miller, Robin White. Visitors were: Delegate Ron Walters, John Luoni from Kanawha County Commission, The lady from the Bakery, and two ladies from the library board.

The bakery lady asked about bridge repair, Delegate Walters said there are 5 ways to collect money for road and bridge repair.

1. the gas tax on vehicle and use tax on trucks
2. charge a fee for alternative fuel vehicles
3. increase the fee for licensing and titles,
4. Increase personal driver's license and license on the vehicle.
5. Corporate money is collected from corporations from Excise Tax which is the use tax to use our roads.

Recycling discussion was held by Lisa Godwin and Robin White. Grant was not applied for based on a lack of area for donation collection and other issues.

The library ladies distributed their fall festival plans on Friday, September 19th from 4-7 pm.

Tom Miller stated that the stop light at the intersection of Call Road and Rt 21 will be installed by
